OVERVIEW

This unique fifteen day "theatre boot camp" taught by professional performers, choreographers and musical directors and culminating in four public performances is a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity for young performers ages 8-18!

Although no previous performance experience or audition is required, we are looking for passionate, committed youth, ages 8-18, who desire an exciting and challenging musical theatre experience! To register, simply fill out a Seussical registration form (do not confuse it with one of the BDTs (school's) summer camp registration forms) and make payment by May 15th. Only those who wish to be considered for a featured role need to attend the March casting call. Those who do not attend the audition will have ensemble roles.
